FUROR IN THE U.S. SENATE

DOUGLAS EDWARDS: "A furor in the U.S. Senate today over a letter written to a newspaper by the new Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, Richard Helms. In the letter, Helms praised a St. Louis Globe Democrat editorial which was critical of Senator William Fulbright, the Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. Helms is reported to have said later that he is sorry he wrote the letter. Fulbright has recently sought unsuccessfully to have his committee join in the secret supervision of the CIA."
